ABOUT ME

Krap Noise is a DJ and producer from Seville, Spain, who has been involved in the music industry since 1995. From a young age, he was drawn to electronic music and began developing his DJ skills at local events.

Throughout his career, he has explored various genres but has found his place in Afro House, Melodic House, and Organic House. His unique style, blending tribal rhythms and sounds from different cultures, has earned him worldwide recognition. He has been a resident DJ at several renowned and trendy clubs in Seville and has performed at important events within the electronic music scene.

In addition to his work as a DJ and producer, Krap Noise is also an entrepreneur. Through Nocturnia Music Group and its labels, Thursday Club and SUVA, he has supported numerous emerging artists, contributing to their successful music careers.

With years of experience, Krap Noise has established himself as a key figure in electronic music, inspiring new generations of artists and fans.
